

Great Big Green Week Bovey Tracey

13-21 June 2026 | Throughout Bovey

Welcome to Great Big Green Week, the biggest nation-wide community campaign dedicated to celebrating local climate action. We invite residents of all ages to come along to our week of events, get involved and enjoy connecting with local action in and around Bovey Tracey.

Find more information about these events through the links provided or head over to “Great Big Green Week Bovey Tracey” on facebook to follow along and be the first to hear about any future announcements.

hen	What	Where
4 June 10.30am – 12pm	Community Craft: Decorations for GBGW Join Susie Honnor and MAKE Southwest for a creative community craft session! The aim of the workshop is to create 4 decorative artworks that will be on display in Bovey Tracey for the duration of Bovey Tracey’s Great Big Green Week, 13 - 21 June. We’ll work together to create colourful decorations for the community event using donated bicycle wheels and reused fabrics - inspired by this year’s cycling theme. Free • Drop-in • All welcome	MAKE SW
4 June 6pm-8pm	Waggy Walk: Caring for the Wild with Devon Loves Dogs and a National Trust Ranger Join fellow dog walkers for a fun sociable walk and swap tips on how you can look after wildlife at the same time.	Parke Estate, meet at the Map/Info board by the car park. ///walnuts.flipper.prowling
5-21 June All day	The Promise Tree Can you make one pledge to nature and hang it on the promise tree in Parke Estate?	Parke Estate – Orchard ///snaps.field.elect
5-21 June All day	Sustainable Gardening Tips Visit the Parke walled garden for tips and information about sustainable gardening practices	Parke Estate – Walled Garden ///stables.yummy.stated

13 June Doors open at 6.30pm for 7.00pm start	GBGW Film Night: 'The Engine Inside' Join CABH, First Draft Books and Bovey Paradiso Arts for our final Reel Earth screening, a documentary about cycling around the globe. Introduced by local custom bicycle maker Pi Manson of Clandestine. Tickets are £10 (plus booking fees): https://www.paradiso.org.uk/Reel-EarthThe-Engine-Inside/Events/	The Phoenix Hall, TQ13 9FF
14 June 10am-12pm	Great Big Green WALK Join National Trust volunteer team on a beautiful, guided walk of the Parke Estate. Enjoy the natural world together & share ideas on how to care for it	Parke Estate, meet at the Map/Info board by the car park. ///walnuts.flipper.prowling
16 June 10.30am-1.30pm	Weave a Willow Garlic Basket Small willow baskets woven in a traditional style using locally grown willow. Use a variety of colours to create a small hanging basket with corded handle. Suitable for complete beginners. £35. Book online.	MAKE SW
17 June 10.30am – 12pm (adults) & 3.30pm – 5pm (kids) Tues-Sat 10am – 5pm	Make a Seed Bomb Join the MAKE Southwest team and volunteers for a free drop-in workshop to make wildflower seed bombs that support local wildlife and strengthen your connections with nature and each other. Free • Drop-in • All welcome Exhibition: Remnants This exhibition presents a body of textile works developed in response to artefacts from the collections of the Royal Albert Memorial Museum (RAMM) in Exeter. Each piece explores the historical narratives, material qualities, and cultural significance embedded within these objects, transforming archival research into contemporary textile practice. FREE entry – no booking needed.	MAKE SW
18 June 9.30am-12pm	Enjoy a Summertime Cycle to explore this wonderful grassland's flora and fauna, with Barry Henwood, moth and butterfly expert. Devon Wildlife Trust invites you to visit Teigngrace Meadow, a fascinating 'new' landscape created from the diggings of nearby clay quarries, by bike. Birds,	Devon Wildlife Trust Location: Teigngrace Meadow nr Bovey Tracey, England butterflies and wildflowers jostle for room amongst its meadowland and steep-sided slopes. Barry Henwood is a national moth expert, Devon Moth Recorder and co-author of Field Guide to the Caterpillars of Great Britain and Ireland.." Advanced booking required. No drop-ins permitted. https://www.devonwildlifetrust.org/events/2026-06-18-cycle-teigngrace-meadow-explore-flora-fauna-barry-henwood

19 June 10.30am – 3.30pm	Make a Flax Corn Dolly Discover the traditional craft of corn dolly making in this hands-on workshop led by skilled artisan, and Staying Alive exhibitor, Vicky Putler. You'll learn how to make 2 different corn dolly designs and along the way Vicky will also demonstrate how to extract flax fibre from straw to make simple linen cordage. £75. Book online.	MAKE SW
19 June 10.30am – 3.30pm	Exhibition: Staying Alive Endangered crafts of the Southwest of England, co-curated by Heritage Crafts Fourteen master makers share their skills, tools, and stories, showing how traditions shaped by the region's land and sea still have relevance and beauty today. From boatbuilding and ropemaking to hedging, basketmaking, and tanning, these crafts connect past and present, keeping centuries of knowledge alive in the modern world. Jubilee Gallery, Ground Floor. FREE entry – no booking needed.	MAKE SW
20 June 9.30am-12.30pm	Repair Café Bring your household goods, bikes, clothes in need of repair by a local expert. Drop in. Donations for work completed greatly appreciated.	The Methodist Church Hall
20 June 10am-4pm	Great Big Green Fun Day in the Park This free, family-friendly day will be a vibrant celebration of community, sustainability and creativity. Come enjoy live music from Exeter Community Folk Orchestra and Bovey Tracey School Choir, furry friends from East Shallowford Farm, an open drumming workshop, eco-themed crafts, community stalls, food trucks and a special appearance from the Animal Rapper.	Mill Marsh Park

20 June 11am- 12pm & 2.30pm- 3.30pm	Foraging for Food Jono from Devon and Cornwall Bushcraft will take you on an adventure into the Parke Estate to learn all about our wild edibles	Mill Marsh Park D&C Bushcraft Stand at GBGD event
21 June 11am & 1pm	Wildlife Wombles with Albert Knott A look at wildlife on our doorsteps. Join us for two 1-hour walks around Bovey exploring the local flora & fauna. Free & drop-in. Learn more at Great Big Green Fun Day on 20 June.	Meet at Methodist Car Park